

KAREN MORAND & THE BOSCO BOYS

new single release April 1, 2021

NEVER ENOUGH 3:48

One more scroll, one more mouthful, one more guilty pleasure - there are things we do to deal with the hard parts of life. It becomes a problem when "just one more" isn't enough. Never Enough is a love song. It reaches into the heart of addictions and calls out the true soul of a person. Award-winning singer-songwriter, Karen Morand penned Never Enough in response to a songwriting challenge. As the pandemic has unfolded, the song has taken on greater significance.

Written by Karen Morand from the upcoming 2022 album, "Ghost Hotel"

Never Enough

Do you hear me crying out to you
When the troubles of this world get you down?
And you go and do the things you do
Do you hear me crying out to you?

Oh love, don't let it get to you
You gotta give it up, give it all you got
Why you gotta make it so tough
With you, you know, it's never enough

Do you hear me begging you to stay
When the day has got the best part of you?
And you go and hide yourself away
Do you hear me begging you to stay?
(don't push me away...)

Oh love, don't let it get to you
You gotta give it up, give it all you got
Why you gotta make it so tough
With you, you know, it's never enough
